Rebel: Short Stories (Paperback)

By -

Ram C. Khatri, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The stories in this anthology share a unique distinction: all navigate the different aspects of the Maoist insurgency in Nepal when the Himalayan country of Mount Everest was thrown chaotically into the People's War. Originally written in Nepali by police officers, Maoist fighters, and established authors, the stories show different aspects of the war time era of Nepal during the decade starting 1996. Manu Brajaki's Now, Your Turn, My Dear! offers an intimate look at the crippling fear and tragedy that befall a couple. Bhaupanthi's The Senseless Killing of a Man focuses on the gratuitous killing of a government officer. Maya Thakuri's The Descending Mountain explores the grim reality of rural life during the conflict, and Padmavati Singh's The Silence of Violence centers on the plight of a displaced village woman. Bhagirathi Shrestha's Execution mingles the disturbed mental state and execution of its main character with the questionable war-time values of society. Sharmila Khadka's Sukanya, Alias Nilima presents an injured officer's stream of consciousness during his hazy awakening after an attack, and Roshan Thapa's...
