

Mission Life!: The Power of Never Giving Up the Miracle of Organ Transplant. (Paperback)

By Eladio Elizondo

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .About the book After being diagnosed with end stage liver cirrhosis, and faced with the bitter truth of such terminal illness-- about a year to live only-- Eladio Elizondo embarked on a furious mission to save his life. In this book, he particularly emphasizes on the monumental efforts required from anyone who has been thrown into the abyss of a fatal disease, and he celebrates how each one of these efforts can help a person overcome a terminal diagnosis. This book is more than a diary. In addition to being a testimony of what happened, it is mainly a retrospective on how the disease affected several of the author's intrinsic facets. -Physiological facet: From being a healthy, strong man, to becoming the morbid, skeletal shadow of a dying man, with massive abdominal ascites, severe portal hypertension, and traumatic encephalopathy. -Psychological facet: From the understandable, yet exhausting distress and denial of being revealed a terminal disease, to the disturbing, terrifying phobias of an uncontrolled mind. From unbearably painful, anxious and restless nights in Florida, to comatose, delirious, and excruciating days in a hospital in...
