Excerpt from The Provincial University in Canadian Development: Address Delivered at the Inauguration of the First President of the University of Manitoba, at Winnipeg, on November 19, 1913 It is to be hoped that all our universities will bring every influence to bear to establish anew the dignity of labor. It must be confessed at the present time that Canadians, like Americans, are abandoning manual work as fast as they can to newcomers from Europe and Asia. Either the creation of a peasant class must be squarely faced at this time or the dignity and the vital need of labor must be duly impressed on Canada's native sons. We must return to the ways of our fathers. We must all work if we would be strong, and we must be strong if we would work.
