Roughly stated, the principal outlets for Kansas wheat are as follows: 1. Local flour mills. 2. Flour mills and terminal elevators in Kansas City, Mo. 3. The foreign market, principally via Gulf ports. 4. Other domestic markets, such as Chicago, Minneapolis, and eastern cities. In addition to these markets, Kansas wheat is also shipped in large quantities to flour mills in the Southern States, including Texas, and to Western States. Some of the principal features of the various markets are discussed below. Kansas Mills.
